DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL EVENT.

Rev. Chalmer Frontz, LaGrange, Ind., Weds Miss Mary E. Noetling of Selinsgrove.

The Snyder County Tribune of Oct. 27th published the following account of the marriage of the daughter of Prof. Wm. Noetling of the Normal School.

"One of the most pleasing and delightful social events of the season took place at the home of the bride's parents on north Market Street, in this place on Thursday evening of last week, when Miss Mary, the only daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Noetling, was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Rev. Chalmer Frontz, of LaGrange, Ind., in the presence of a large number of invited guests.

The parlors were tastily decorated with autumn leaves and palms, which together with the rich toilets of the ladies, and the bright and smiling faces of the assemblage, made it a pleasant and long to be remembered event.

The hour for the service had been fixed for 7 o'clock p. m., but owing to the non arrival of Dr. Frontz, a brother of the groom, who with his wife was detained through the lateness of the train in which they were traveling, it was postponed one hour, during which time they arrived.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John B. Focht, D. D., of Trinity Lutheran, the bride's pastor. The bridal party consisted of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Seig of Steelton, Pa., with Master Frank Noetling, nephew of the bride, page, and Miss Helen, her neice, as flower girl. The bride was attired in a white gown, cut en train, and presented a beautiful appearance. Mrs. Seig was also handsomely gowned. The gentlemen wore the conventional black dress suits.

After the ceremony a sufficient time was given to those present to congratulate the newly wedded couple after which all present were ushered into the dining hall, where tables were arranged, and after all were seated, the refreshments were served without stint, and consisted of buttered rolls, oyster patties, chicken salad, cakes of various kinds, Ice Cream, confections and coffee. Abont one hundred and eighty guests were present and one and all did ample justice to the good things placed before them.

The newly married couple were the recipients of a large number of costly presents, ornamental as well as useful which they will highly prize, not so much for their intrinsic worth, as for the fond memories attached to them.

Miss Noetling was one of our town's most popular young ladies, to know her was to be her friend, and she will be missed by all. The groom is a rising young divine, who is serving a Lutheran congregation at LaGrange, Ind., where he has hosts of friends. After the wedding supper the newly wedded couple took a carriage for Sunbury, from whence they started on their wedding trip. The bride will accompany her husband to his western home where she will heartily enter into the duties of a pastor's wife. We wish them a long, happy and prosperous life."

Berwick Visited by Fire.

As the result of an explosion of a lamp, which had been left burning all night, the house of J. C. Rood, between Market and Mulberry streets, Berwick, was reduced to a heap of smouldering ruins early Tuesday morning. It had been customary to let the lamp burning, but accidents will happen. The fire was first discovered by a pedestrian, and he hastily gave the alarm and aroused the slumbering members of the family, who experienced considerable difficulty in getting out of the structure, owing to the fact that every avenue of escape was filled with smoke. The loss, it is believed, will be covered by the insurance.

Mystery in a Fire.

A fire, the origin of which is a complete mystery, occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cadman, on North Iron street, Monday evening, and destroyed a large basket and its contents of newly washed clothing, which Mrs. Cadman had just taken in off the line. Placing the basket on the inside of the house, she returned to the yard, when, looking up, she observed smoke issuing from the upstairs window. Frightened at the vision, she hurried into the house, and discovered the basket of clothes wrapped in flames. A quick application of water extinguished the blaze, but the clothes were all ruined.

STRAY PARAGRAPHS.

—There will be a big outpouring of Democracy at tonights meeting.

—You may wish to get a wife without a failing, but what if the lady; after you find her, happens to be in want of a husband of the same character.

—A young widow in New York has established a pistol-gallery. Her qualifications as a teacher of the art of dueling are of course understood, she has killed her husband.

—The most smiling and placid continence oftentimes marks the most dangerous temper. We have read of a terrible thunder bolt, shot from a cloud arched by a beautiful rainbow.

—Fourteen divorce suits were instituted at the term of court just closed in Tioga county. That county is far from the sea, but by standing on her topmost hill one can distinctly hear the moaning of the tied.

From Alpha to Omega.
A little Miss,
A little Kiss,
A little Bliss,
A wedding—that is splendid;
A little jaw,
A little law,
Back home to Ma,
And lo! the troubles' ended.

A Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party was given to Mr. Bruce Drescher and family, of Stillwater, Monday evening October 23rd, it being Mr. Drescher's thirty-seventh birthday anniversary. The evening was very enjoyably spent and passed away all to quickly for so pleasant an event. After refreshments had been served the guests departed to their homes, wishing Mr. Drescher many recurrences of such a happy event.

Those present were Alvin Drescher and wife, Pierce Ash and wife, Chas. Dresher and wife, M. W. McHenry and wife, A. J. McHenry and wife, Stephen Drescher and wife, Oscar Hagenbnch and wife, Joseph McHenry and wife, Jesse Hackenberg and wife, Cyrus Karns and wife, Mrs. William Marr, Mrs. Albertson; the Misses Cora Hess, Eva McHenry, Josephine Dresher, Bertha McHenry, Berenice, Lena, Anna and Francis Drescher: Geraldine Hagenbuch; Bessie Marr, Letha McHenry, Mattie Albertson, Rachel McHenry; Messrs. Gaylard McHenry, Ambrose Hess, Dr. Wagner, Edmund Karns, Stephen and Paul Dreshor, McHenry Hagenbuch, Llewllyn McHenry, Raymond Hackenberg and Jack McHenry. —Benton Argus.

Game and Hunters.

Reports from the local press in nearly all parts of the State give evidence that birds, squirrels and other small game are plentiful, but that the hunters are likewise numerous. It is stated that never before were there more gunners out, and this is fairly corroborated by a York firearm dealer who says he has sold more than 100 guns this season to his retail customers, and his total sales to the trade aggregate considerable over 200 guns. Sportsmen are especially surprised at the number of wild birds that are found, when the ceverity of last winter is considered.

However plentiful game may abound there are indications that hunters may again pursue the sport so freely that a scarcity will come like that experienced several years ago. Even in the catching of fish there seems to be no consideration given, as the Harrisburg Star Independent says that in one day last week there were taken in fish baskets from the streams in Dauphin County more than 1000 pounds of black bass. This, too, was not an unusual day's catch.

The youngsters around town worked off a lot of surplus energy Tuesday night throwing grain of various kinds at passers by in observance of Cornwallis night. We have heard it said that there were many malicious acts committed in the way of tearing down steps, carrying off gates, and breaking window panes. An arrest or two would stop this sort of thing.

The Good Will Fire Company will hold an oyster supper in the Moyer building on Main street on Tuesday night, election day. They are deserving of the town peoples' patronage.

VOTE FOR SNYDER FOR TREASURER.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Rev. Thomas, pastor of the Reformed Church, will make the address at the men's meeting next Sunday afternoon. All men invited.

The Boys' Brigade will give a reception to their new chaplain on Thursday evening of this week. Each member of the Brigade has the privilege of inviting his young friends girls as well as boys. All boys who are eligible for recruits in the Brigade are especially invited.

The latest feature of the Boys' Brigade is the "Brigade Glee Club." This combination will make its first appearance at the reception on Thursday night. It is made up of excellent voices, and judging from the success in the first rehearsals, the boys will make a great hit.

The subscription list for our new Y. M. C. A. home fund is still increasing, but there are yet a great many who have not as yet subscribed. Every man, both old and young, should endeavor to be represented in this enterprise. Some are able to give much, and many can give small amounts. The management of the Association proposes to continue the canvass until every dollar is raised to pay the property off in full. Let there be a general, generous response, and make the work light as possible.

Indications are that the fair and bazaar, which the Ladies' Auxiliary will hold, Nov. 20 to 25, will be a great success. The chief evidence of this is that the ladies are determined it shall be—and, of course, it will.

On Monday evening last our esteemed townsman, Hon. Wm. Chrisman, presented the Association with the following books: Smull's Legislative Hand Book, 1899, Penna. Report of the Department of Agriculture, part 1, 1898, and a book on Birds. These books are all full of useful information, and will always be available by persons visiting the reading room.

Trolley Lines Sold.

The Montoursville Passenger Railway has been sold to the Railways Company General, of Philadelphia. The new management took charge early Monday morning, October 23d. The same company has also purchased the Milton, Lewisburg & Watsontown Electric Railway, a line thirteen miles long, running from Watsontown to Lewisburg. The controlling stock of both roads purchased was held by the Drexel estate. It is probable that the two lines will be connected in the near future, making a through trolley line from Williamsport to Lewisburg, taking in Muncy.

Extensive improvements are to be made an early date, and it is said the Lewisburg end of the line will be connected with the Montoursville system. Then the line from Milton will be run to Northumberland, and a continuous line thus formed between the capitals of Lycoming and Northumberland.

Another rumor, said to be authentic, is that on the completion of the bridge over the Susquehanna river, at Sunbury, the latter system will be extended to Selinsgrove.

Other improvements to be made are those at the Milton electric light plant. The first will be the installation of a new dynamo of three thousand volts, in addition to the one of five thousand volts, which is now doing service.

When work on the above mentioned extensions begin many hundred laborers will be given work, which means much to the down-river towns, which will also be benefitted in many other ways by the improvements.

The company now controlling the Milton, Lewisburg and Sunbury systems is the same one which recently purchased the Montoursville road.

Young Enos Jacoby, whose disappearance from home since Friday, October 12, has been the cause of great worriment on the part of his mother, returned on Tuesday. It appears that the lad had company, of about his own age, and together the two had been stealing their way over the country on freight trains. They attended the Fair at Frederick City, Maryland, and went from there to Washington, where they were taken in charge by the authorities and sent home.

A. N. Yost, secretary of the Fair Association, will pay premiums on and after Monday next, at his office.

Twelfth Bi-County Convention.

The 12th Bi-County Convention of the Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor of Montour and Columbia counties met in the Christian church, Benton, Pa., Oct. 19 and 20. The preparatory meeting was an inspiration to all who attended. Mr. W. D. Lanmaster of Danville, talked beautifully on "The Secret of the Christians' Power." Among other good things he said: 1st. You must possess salvation. Be sure you are saved 2nd. You must have much of the Word of God hid in your heart. 3rd. You must have the Holy Spirit. Be willing to fail two or three times for Christ when you start to talk for Him. One great trouble in the world today is the unwillingness of the people to let God rule over them. The richest of God's goodness is thrown out in His love; you can accept or reject it, just as you choose.

A very impressive Covenant service was conducted by the President, Rev. G. H. Hemingway of Bloomsburg. The sun-rise prayer meeting led by Mr. H. H. Furman of Danville, was a new feature and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number.

A most cordial welcome to delegates and friends was extended by Rev. Geo. P. Morse. Reports of officers and superintendents were very encouraging, yet all laid great stress upon more promptness on the part of the corresponding secretaries of Local Societies.

Two amendments to the coustitution were discussed and adopted. One provides for an additional officer, the Chairman of the Correspondence Committee; the other for an extra session of the Annual Convention, beginning hereafter with an evening session.

Dr. R. Rock of Shamokin, Pa., gave a very earnest and spirited talk on "Christian Citizenship," he thinks a christian should be loyal to his party only when his party is loyal to his God. Quite a number took part in the symposium on "How can we achieve greater success in the moral movements of the day." Much interest was manifest in the Question Meeting as to the solution of the difficulties that arise in the works of the Societies. The contribution of Christian Endeavor to the "Religious Life of the Century" was discussed by Rev. G. H. Hemingway. In the absence of the speakers as given on the programme, an excellent address was delivered on "The Outlook for the 20th Century," by Dr. Rock. Installation of officers and the Consecration service was conducted by the President.

TAILOR - MADE CLOTHES.

OVERCOAT WISDOM.

Bad cutting spoils any cloth. Poor workmanship ruins the best cutting. Cheap trimmings, shoddy linings, cotton, instead of silk thread, flimsy pockets, bad buttonholes. These soon make a "dud" of the whole thing.

When you go to a cheap tailor you choose the cloth—not the other things. That's where you get left.

Might as well choose the whole garment—see what you're getting—and if you didn't get what you think you get, here's your money back.

SHUBRICK LAUNCHED

The Occasion Graced by President McKinley.

RICHMOND GIVES WARM WELCOME.

The Torpedo Boat Glides From Her Ways After Being Christened by a Great-Grandniece of the Man Whose Name She Bears.

RICHMOND, Nov. 1.—The torpedo boat Shubrick was launched here yesterday in the presence of President McKinley, several members of his cabinet, Governor Tyler of Virginia and an immense outpouring of people. The demonstration was marred in some of its features by a heavy rainstorm. The civic carnival parade had to be abandoned until today owing to the weather, and the decorations of the buildings presented a bedraggled and woebegone appearance. But the people, residents as well as visitors from other Virginia cities and points outside the state who came to witness the launching and see the president, were enthusiastic.

The presidential train arrived on time, and as it skirted through the suburbs of the city the howitzer battery fired a presidential salute. At Elba station, in the west end, where the president debarked and took a carriage for the Jefferson hotel, he was formally welcomed by Mayor Taylor, who spoke as follows:

"Mr. President—This occasion demands simply an old Virginia welcome, and as mayor and the representative of every man, woman and child in this community I bid you and your distinguished associates a hearty welcome to this historic city. We are mindful of the fact that you have shown by your patriotic utterances that you stand for the whole republic, and we throw aside all differences. We esteem you as the president of our entire country, and as such we greet you and thank you sincerely for your kindness in coming to our celebration of an event which is an epoch in our commercial history."

The response of the president was as follows:

Mr. Mayor and Fellow Citizens—I only appear for a moment to give heartfelt response to the warm and cordial welcome given to me by the people of the city of Richmond, through its honored chief executive officer. Your mayor has kindly alluded to the good feeling which everywhere prevails, and I can only, in replying, say that if in the slightest degree I contributed to the unification of the country it is the proudest honor of my life. I am to speak for a few minutes this afternoon, and so, only thanking you, Mr. Mayor and my fellow citizens, for this welcome, I bid you all good morning."

Immediately after this ceremony the president and party were driven to the Jefferson hotel and held an informal and somewhat enforced reception in the Franklin street lobby of the building. It is estimated that 1,000 persons shook hands with him before he would permit the police to clear the way for him to go to his private apartments.

A little later luncheon was served in the dining rooms of the hotel, some 300 persons sitting down, and then the presidential party were driven to the shipyard, the president being warmly cheered all along the route. At the yard an immense crowd had assembled. The president, having been introduced from the stand by Mayor Taylor, spoke at considerable length.

The launching, which followed, was a great success, the boat being christened by little Miss Carrie Shubrick of Rocky Mount, N. C., great-grandniece of Commodore Shubrick, with the usual formalities. It was a side launching, but the boat took water like a duck amid enthusiastic cheering and the tooting of steam whistles.

FERRYBOAT SINKS.

Cut In Two by Steamer In the North River, With Loss of Life.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The double decked ferryboat Chicago of the Pennsylvania railroad Cortlandt street line was run down and sunk near her New York slip in the North river by a steamer supposed to be the City of Augusta of the Savannah line at 12:35 this morning.

She sank within a few minutes.

There were between 30 and 40 passengers aboard, and it is known that two persons were lost.

Captain Durham of the Chicago said that the only one of his crew who is unaccounted for is a fireman named Vroom.

There is no list of the passengers, however, and the loss, if any, among them is impossible to ascertain.

The scene following the crash was a terrible one.

There was a mad rush for life preservers, and the fact that the boat was not crowded alone averted a horrible calamity.

The passengers leaped from the sinking boat in all directions.

A few of the stronger succeeded in swimming to the New York shore. Tugs, fireboats and numbers of small boats had responded to the Chicago's whistles and aided in the work of rescue.

The Chicago sank in about 30 feet of water, leaving only a few feet of her deckhouse and funnel out of water.

Big Catch of Mackerel.

HIGHLAND LIGHT, Mass., Nov. 1.—About 300 barrels of medium mackerel were taken in the fish traps at North Truro yesterday. It is believed by the fishermen that the hurricane now sweeping up the coast has stirred the sea to a great depth and driven the fish into the smooth water of the bay. The season has not been successful, and this good bit of luck causes rejoicing in the hamlet.

Destructive Storms In Cuba.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Oct. 30.—After five days of continuous rainstorms a terrific hurricane from the southeast swept over Santiago yesterday, causing considerable destruction. Irving In New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Sir Henry Irving, Miss Ellen Terry and their company of 52 players have arrived on the steamer Marquette from London. The steamer also brought here 280 tons of scenery for staging.

MADRID, Nov. 1.—A sensation was caused in the senate by the declaration of Count d'Almenas that, owing to the ignorance of the Spanish-American peace treaty commissioners, three islands of the Philippine group—the two Batanes and Calayan island, both north of Luzon—were not included in the scope of the treaty. These islands, he asserted, ought to be made the basis of negotiations for the liberation of the Spanish prisoners.

It is now believed that the revolution is ending.

CABANATUAN TAKEN

The Filipinos Also Driven From Labao.

SPANIARDS BRING NEWS FROM TARLAC

American Prisoners Well Treated, but Spanish Fare Poorly—Lawton Called "the Night General" Because He Attacks In Darkness.

MANILA, Oct. 31.—A battalion of the Twenty-second infantry, under Major Ballance, has entered Cabanatuan without opposition. The inhabitants received them with shouts of "Vive los Americanos!"

The gunboat Laguna de Bay remains at Santa Rosa. The Rio Grande de la Pampanga is falling slightly, and this hinders the transport service, which is now depending on mules and carabaos.

Colonel Bell of the Thirty-sixth infantry Sunday paid his weekly visit to Labao, which was stubbornly defended. He finally routed the natives and chased them over the hills, killing many, but having two of his officers and four of his men wounded.

Two companies under Major Bishop which were re-enforcing Colonel Bell Sunday encountered a body of cavalry which was advancing to cover the retreat of the enemy, and a second engagement ensued. There was the liveliest kind of fight when the Filipino cavalry attempted to make charges. They finally scattered in all directions and made their escape individually to the hills near Florida Blanca.

Four officers, including Major Pedro Salvador of the insurgent cavalry, and eight men were killed, and many others were wounded. Three prisoners were taken. One Krag-Jorgensen and eight Remington rifles were captured. Our loss was one killed and two wounded.

The Thirty-second regiment, Colonel Craig, is now disembarking.

The Spanish commission which entered the insurgent lines a month ago with money to relieve the wants of several thousand military and civil Spanish prisoners has returned to Angeles. The commissioners report that they spent most of the time in Tarlac and the vicinity, where there are some 200 sick Spaniards in the hospital. The Filipinos ill treat and ill feed them, refusing to surrender them, as well as the other Spanish prisoners, in the hope of compelling Spain to recognize the independence of the islands.

There are 14 American prisoners, they say, at Tarlac, all of whom are well treated. Lieutenant J. C. Gilmore of the United States gunboat Yorktown, who fell into the hands of the insurgents at Baler, on the east coast of Luzon, last April, where the Yorktown had gone on a special mission to relieve the Spanish garrison, is at Bingat.

According to their statement Aguinaldo, who is still at Tarlac with 3,000 troops, wishes to continue the war, although he has a high opinion of the American officers and soldiers. General Lawton he calls "el general de la noche" ("the night general"), because that commander has attacked him so often in the darkness that he never knows when to look for him.

Aguinaldo is said to be well supplied with arms and ammunition, and he is able to get plenty of rice from the northern provinces.

VANDERBILT'S WILL.

Alfred Gets the Lion's Share and Heads the Family.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, second living son of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt, is made residuary legatee under his father's will, while to the eldest living son, Cornelius, is left only $500,000 absolutely and $1,000,000 in trust. Alfred has, however, added nearly $6,000,000 to his elder brother's share so as to put him on an equality with his younger sister and younger brother. The estate is now estimated at something over $70,000,000, of which between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 will go to Alfred; at present, the income only of the present residue, but half absolutely when he is 30 years old and the other half absolutely when he is 35.

Bequests to friends amount to $615,000. Two hundred thousand goes to Senator Depew, $100,000 to W. K. Vanderbilt and $50,000 each to E. V. W. Rossiter, the Rev. Dr. Greer of St. Bartholomew's church, and John Hone. To St. Bartholomew's church $600,000 is given, of which $200,000 is for a new building. To the Y. M. C. A., for the benefit of railroad men, $100,000 is given. To various other institutions is bequeathed $320,000.

Piano Safe Rifled.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Diedrich von Soosten, 60 years old, out of breath and excited, rushed into the East Eighty-eighth street station yesterday afternoon and told the sergeant that thieves had just robbed him of $9,000 in cash. The money had been taken from his apartments at 1678 Third avenue, where he had it secreted in the piano. The money was in gold and paper currency and represented the savings of years. Van Soosten, though comparatively wealthy, does not believe in banks. He is almost distracted.

Large Purchase of Coal Lands.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 31.—A syndicate of New York capitalists, through Real Estate Agent Copeland at Parnassus, has purchased 36,000 acres of coal land in Westmoreland county. The property extends along the Alleghany river on both sides of New Kensington and includes all between the river and Greensburg. The money value of the territory is not made public, but it is known that Mr. Copeland and his local syndicate received from the eastern people considerably more than $1,000,000.

Captain Ludlow Retired.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Captain Nicoll Ludlow has been retired with the rank of rear admiral in the navy on his own application after 30 years' service and under the terms of the personnel bill conferring one grade in rank in case of such retirement. Captain Ludlow is a son-in-law of Mrs. Washington McLean and brother-in-law of Mrs. Hazen.

School Boarding House Burned.

NORWAY, Me., Nov. 1.—The large trustee boarding house which is connected with Hebron academy was burned yesterday morning. About 40 students were asleep in the rooms when the fire started, and some of them had exciting experiences, though no one was injured. The loss is large, but the building was insured.

DEATH OF GENERAL HENRY.

A Hero of Many Battles and Former Governor of Porto Rico.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Brigadier General Henry, whose death, as already announced, occurred at his home in this city yesterday morning, was one of the most distinguished men in the United States service. As an officer in the cavalry he led the men of famous organizations to greater glory. It was in the civil war that he won a medal of honor from congress for his gallant conduct in leading his brigade at the battle of Cold Harbor. He had two horses shot under him, but still went ahead, spurring his men forward in as desperate a forlorn hope as was ever recorded on any battlefield.

Gallantry marked his conduct at the battle of Pocotaligo, Fla., and for that he was brevetted to be a captain. He won the brevet of a major by gallant conduct at Olustee, Fla., got a lieutenant colonelcy in front of Petersburg, was made a colonel for his services in the war and finally brevetted to a brigadier generalcy for his conduct before Petersburg and later for his conduct in the Sioux campaign.

According to his official record, he was a cadet at the United States Military academy from 1856 to 1861.

It seems peculiarly fitting that the future Indian fighter should have as his birthplace an army post in the very heart of the western frontier, Fort Smith, I. T., and that his father, Major William Seaton Henry of the Third United States infantry, should be engaged in a war with the savages at that time, March 9, 1839, and it is also appropriate that a man who was destined to become the military and civil governor of a foreign territory won by the sword should be the grandson of one who was vice president of the United States and twice governor of New York state, Daniel D. Tompkins, and also grandson of a former secretary of the navy and judge of the supreme court, Smith Thompson.

He served with distinction in the Spanish war under General Miles so far as distinction was possible in the Porto Rican campaign and afterward was given the difficult task of placing our new colony in harmony with our ideas. He was compelled to give up that post by illness.

BOLD ROBBERY.

Cable Line Treasurer Loses Nearly $50,000.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31.—Robert B. Jennings, secretary and treasurer of the Broadway cable line, was robbed of $1,043 in cash and $48,750 in checks while standing on the rear platform of a Broadway car at Broadway and Washington avenue at noon yesterday. The police attempted to suppress the facts, and as a consequence the news was not known generally until three or four hours later in the day.

The robbery, committed in broad daylight on one of the business corners of St. Louis, is regarded as one of the most daring crimes committed in the history of local police annals.

Payment on the checks, which were drawn on the Boatmen's bank, has been stopped by the railroad company.

Mr. Jennings was robbed of a large amount several years ago under somewhat similar circumstances. Two men boarded a Broadway car and snatched up a satchel he had at his feet containing $4,000. The robbers were captured and sent to the penitentiary.

CAPE NOME GOLD.

One and One-half Millions Mined In Three Months.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The Alaska Commercial company's steamship Bertha has arrived from Cape Nome and St. Michael's. She brought about $1,500,000 in gold. The Bertha left Cape Nome two weeks ago, at which time there was between 4,500 and 5,000 miners on the beach.

Captain Washume reports that thus far between three and four creeks have been worked, and he estimates the amount of gold taken out in three working months at $1,500,000. There is a great rush to the new diggings, Center City having been abandoned and Eagle City practically so. There is a sufficiency of food for the winter at Cape Nome, and, although there is a shortage of coal, there is a plentiful supply of wood, so that no suffering is anticipated.

Camp Meade to Be Abandoned.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 1.—The heirs of the Young estate, whose farm lands, near Middletown, Pa., Camp Meade is located, have been notified by the war department that the camp will be abandoned.

WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Oct. 30, 1899.

Imperialism is to bring many new things, and among the rest a new committee of the House, which can be depended upon to report just such legislation concerning the imperial colonies as may be ordered by His Majesty, William I. Under ordinary circumstances all bills introduced in the House relating to new territory owned by the government would be referred to the committee on Territories. But the chairman of the committee on Teritories in the last House, who cannot be denied the same position in the next House without a marked breach of courtesy, is under suspicion, so his committee is to be supplanted, so far as the new possessions are concerned, by a new one which can be depended upon. Whether the name of the new committee has been selected is not positively known, but the proper name for it will be Committee on Imperialism, for such it will be popularly known. There is also some talk of establishing a similar committee in the Senate, where there has already been wrangling between the Committee on Territories, and that on Foreign Relations over the control of bills relating to the new possessions, but such a programme cannot be carried out in the Senate as easily as in the House. The Republicans have a majority in the Senate, but there are a number of Republican Senators who are opposed to imperialism and all its trimmings.

Mr. John R. McLean is confident that he will be the next Governor of Ohio. He was in Washington for a day last week and he told his friends that the prospects for Democratic success are improving every day and that he had not the slightest doubt of his election. He also said that Col. Bryan's short visit to the State was of great benefit to the Democrats, notwithstanding Republican statements to the contrary.

A striking case of bad judgment and management on the part of some official connected with the Navy Department came to light last week, when it was announced that the converted yacht Vixen, which was recently ordered to South American waters, would be put out of commission and probably sold. After the Vixen had been fitted up with a modern battery and otherwise equiped as a gunboat it was discovered that there was not room aboard her to carry a sufficient amount of provisions, for her crew, even for a moderately long voyage. It is evident that somebody neglected their duty in not making this discovery before the Government had gone to the expense of converting the yacht into a gun boat.

The country has no reason to feel proud of the final action of the Naval Board on Construction as to the plans of three new battleships, which were last week determined upon, since it is admitted even by the members of the board, that these battleships, when completed, will be inferior in almost every respect to the latest battleships of Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia and Japan. Because American crews are the best in the world is no reason why millions of the peoples money should be spent in building inferior ships for them, and Congress should prevent these vessels being constructed. If we can't build battleships equal or better in every way than those other nations are building, we would better build none. The board also decided upon the plans for three new armored cruisers. The oddest part of this whole business is that, although these six warships are to cost more than $30,000,000, not one of the famous fighting officers of our navy were consulted or even asked to make a suggestion to the board, which is composed of naval officers known as theorists, but not as fighters.

Senator Procter has not given up the idea of holding Admiral Dewey in reserve as an anti-McKinley candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination because the McKinley crowd succeeded in alarming the Admiral about his health to the extent of causing him to abandon his intended trips to Atlanta and Philadelphia. On the contrary, he is more determined than ever, and the announcement that Admiral Dewey would make trips to the South and the West in the early Spring is understood to be due to Proctor's influence; and a friend of Proctor's said that the McKinley crowd had played right into Proctor's hand by keeping Dewey quiet this winter; as a boom started in the Spring, if the conditions seem to warrant one, will be much more likely to be effective than one started at this time. Admiral Dewey is now a Washington real estate owner, the deed for the house purchased for him with the $50,000 donated for that purpose being now in his possession.

All the members of the Philippine Commission, except Gen. Otis, are in Washington, but the Commission will not begin holding meetings until this week.

"GRASP ALL AND LOSE ALL."—Many people are so intent on "grasping all" that they lose strength of nerves, appetite, digestion, health. Eortunately, however, these may be restored by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has put many a business man on the road to success by giving him good digestion, strong nerves and a clear brain. It does the same thing for weak and tired women.

Hood's Pills cure sick headache, indigestion.

A boy in one of the country schools was asked to write an essay. For his subject he took "The Newspaper," and here is what he wrote; I don't know how the newspaper came into the world. I don't think God does, for he hasn't got nothing to say about them, and 'editor, is not in the Bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you hear about, and stayed in the brush until after the flood and then came out and wrote the thing up, and has been ever since. I don't think he ever dies. I never seen a dead 'un and never heard of one getting licked. Our paper is a mighty poor 'un; the editor goes around without underclothes all winter, don't wear no socks, and pa hasn't paid his subscription in five years."

A New Swindle.

A slick swindler has been operating in several parts of nearby counties, whose method is new and unique. The fellow would land in a place and sell an interest in a new invention—a machine for the manufacture of perfume from the natural flowers. The plan was to take the machine out in the street and manufacture the perfume in the presence of the patrons and there sell it. After purchasing an interest in the machine, usually paying fifty dollars, the victim would eventually find that the perfume sold was purchased at a drug store, and the whole thing was a fraud of the first water.

Pennsylvania Ahead.

An official statement of the total number of Pennsylvanians enlisted in the last two years is being compiled by Major Cragle, who has charge of the offices in the Pennsylvania recruiting district. His report, which will be made to the War Department, brings the number of enlistments, up to October 20 and shows that in round figures 20,000 men have answered Uncle Sam's call from this State. Of this number 9,000 joined the regulars and 11,000 entered the ranks of the volunteers. This is a greater number than furnished by any other State in the Union.

A Startling Occurrence.

Harvey Dutter, night operator on the P. & R., at Gilberton, had an unusual experience a few nights since. The through express does not stop at this station, and as the train came in sight two calves ran upon the track. They were struck in an instant and one was hurled through the window, knocking Dutter from the chair and putting out his light. As he lay there covered with blood and quivering flesh his feelings can be imagined. He did not know what had happened until he had extricated himself and secured a light.

A granite monument, to cost fully $20,000, is to be erected in Woodlawn cemetery, Titusville, to the memory of Colonel E. E. Drake, the man who drilled the first oil well. The shaft will be the gift of an unknown pioneer in the oil business, a life-long friend of Colonel Drake, whose first well, a short distance from Titusville, was the inception of the great oil industry.

BARNETT REPUDIATED.

Men of the Tenth Refuse to Certify For Him.

Republican State Committee Fails in Its Effort to Suppress "Cold Feet" Truths.

Pittsburg, Oct. 24.—"I have nothing to say in reply to the charges the Philadelphia Record makes against me. They have been made before. They are not worthy of attention" said Lieutenant Colonel James E. Barnett, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, at Indiana tonight.

In an interview he pretended to take no cognizance of the story. But at Washington it was different.

BARNETT ASKS VINDICATION.

Under pretense that he did not care about the exposure, he telegraphed Color Bearer Harry Cundall and another by name of Dr. W. Denny, Company H, stationed at Washington, his home, to prepare a petition refuting the charges of dodging and cowardice made by The Record, and to have it signed by the members of Company H, who are now at their homes. This was done as directed by Mr. Barnett.

HE IS SAD OF HEART.

Immediately upon receipt of Colonel Barnett's telegram the few friends he has in the regiment there began work. The petition was prepared in the office of a well known attorney, four copies being made. They were immediately placed in the hands of Barnett's friends, who were started on the hunt for signers. They reported tonight, when word was sent to Barnett. He is sad at heart.

Out of the 60 or more members of the company here less than one tenth of this number have signed the statements. The pronounced opposition of the soldier boys is most surprising.

It was the first opportunity they had of going on record against their superior officer, and they have been forced to do this by the Republican managers.

ONLY FOUR MEN TO UPHOLD H'M.

So far as can be ascertained, only four signatures were obtained. The company is almost unanimous in its refusal to testify on behalf of the Colonel, and the boys allege that a dozen names cannot be secured.

One of the soldiers said this evening that he would not say anything detrimental to the Lieutenant Colonel nor do anything that would hurt his candidacy for State Treasurer, but he could not testify to something which he of his own knowledge knew to be untruthful.

Others expressed themselves in the same manner. The friends of Barnett realize now the serious blunder which has been made by those who have placed these papers in circulation, as it has done Colonel Barnett's cause infinitely more harm than good by forcing the soldiers to go on record in a matter which they claim would have not been brought into political use.

A "COLD-FOOT" RECEPTION.

Lieutenant Colonel Barnett was not enthusiastically received at the home of Attorney General John P. Elkin, though that gentleman tried hard to secure him a great demonstration.

No members of the Tenth reside here, but the people know Barnett from the boys of the adjoining counties, who were with him in the Philippines.

None of the 14 members of his "flag" party would discuss "The Record's" charges, and none would even deny any of the specific allegations made by "The Record" concerning his conduct at the battle of Guiguinto, where he is alleged to have crouched behind a rice dyke and pointed the way to Company I, of Greensburg, to the firing line.

Governor Stone, in a speech at William's Grove in 1898, said: "I am a candidate for governor. It is my firm purpose if elected to disappoint my critics and discharge my duty faithfully to the people of Pennsylvania." Stone as governor has not disappointed his critics. On the other hand he has proved what they claimed, that he is owned down to his undershirt by Quay. He has not discharged his duties faithfully to the people, but on the other hand he has made the most odious, unpopular and lawless governor the state has ever known. He only exceeds Beaver, the smallest intellectually of our governors in one thing—the loyalty of a dog to his master.

From Mrs. Gunter to Mrs. Pinkham.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 76,244]

"One year ago last June three doctors gave me up to die, and as I had at different times used your Vegetable Compound with good results, I had too much faith in it to die until I had tried it again. I was apparently an invalid, was confined to my bed for ten weeks. (I believe my trouble was ulceration of womb).

"After taking four bottles of the Compound and using some of the Liver Pills and Sanative Wash, at the end of two months I had greatly improved and weighed 155 pounds, when I never before weighed over 138. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine I ever used, and I recommend it to all my friends."—MRS. ANNA EVA GUNTER, HIGGINSVILLE, MO.

Mrs. Barnhart Enjoys Life Once More.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I had been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhœa, pains in back and legs; dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach. Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine has worked wonders for me."—MRS. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE, PA.

Vice President Hobart is very sick. His death may occur at any time.

President McKinley has issued his proclamation setting apart Thursday, Nov. 30th as a day of thanksgiving and prayers.

Are you going to help give a big majority for the Democratic county ticket, and thus help the State ticket, or are you a stay-at-home?

Vote the straight Democratic ticket. No one claims that any candidate was unfairly nominated, and there is no excuse for independent candidates.

State Chairman Rilling is doing his utmost to secure a fair vote in Philadelphia. The Business Men's League, Municipal League and Democratic State Organization ought to make it warm for ballot box stuffers.

Every Democrat owes it as a duty to himself, to his family, to his party, to his State and to his country, to spend election day in earnest work for the success of the ticket. We can redeem the State from Quay rule and make a grand start for the great battle of 1900 by doing our full duty this year.

The Business Men's League, of Philadelphia, has announced that it will prosecute a vigorous campaign against election frauds. Ex-Judge James Gay Gordon and Ex-District Attorney George S. Graham have been retained to manage the legal end of the fight. There isn't a stronger legal team in the country and the repeaters know that their nefarious business on this occasion is particularly dangerous.

The duty of every Democrat is to vote on Tuesday next. If others lack the interest to attend the polls without persuasion urge them to go. If Democrats do their duty victory is assured.

Tell your Republican neighbor that Farmer Creasy has pledged himself to pay the full amount of the school appropriation if he is elected Treasurer, unless Stone's veto is decided legal by the Courts.

So strong is the feeling against Barnett in the southwestern counties, where most of the Tenth boys live, that the Republican county chairmen have aked Reeder to keep him out of their counties entirely. When Secretary Ostermaier, of the Allegheny County Organization, was asked a few days ago whether Barnett would speak in Pittsburg, said: "I think not, I never heard any one mention the idea of bringing Barnett here. We want big fellows, or none at all."

VOTE FOR HENRIE FOR PROTHONOTARY.

Vote the straight Democratic ticket, and you will make no mistakes.

The Woman's Industrial and Patriotic League of Washington, will purchase a home and present it to Rear Admiral Schley, he having informed a delegation, representing the League, that he would accept such a gift.

The Machine has had no end of trouble with its ticket. First: Adams, the Machine candidate for Judge, was shown to be the associate of rascals to such an extent that he wilted and retired. Now Barnett, who was to turn the State upside down, on account of his dazzling military splendor, is charged with being a skulker in time of danger, who only left the safety of the ditch when the battle was over. Barnett may stay on the ticket to the finish, but he will not reach the Treasurer's desk, unless the voters of Pennsylvania have lost their senses.

The Philadelphia North American, a Republican paper, says:

"Colonel Barnett invites inspection as a soldier. It is right, therefore, to hold him to the code of an officer and a gentleman. How can he square his conduct with that code? Night after night on the platform with him, men, garbed in the uniform of the Tenth, have sung ditties in Barnett's praise, describing in the lower register the blood-stained and corpse-strewn plains of Luzon, and in the upper register shrilling request for votes. These songsters have been passed off, with Colonel Barnett's connivance, as war-worn heroes from the ensanguined Orient, moved to their musical efforts by pure devotion to the gallant officer who led them against the unterrified foe.

It turns out that this "Barnett Quintet" is a fraud. At least two of its uniformed members are not soldiers at all. One's most dangerous occupation has been bottling beer, and another is a professional vocalist from the vaudeville stage."

A SUPPOSED SHARP PRACTICE.

The Republican management of this county for some years past has been playing a sharp game. Their plan is to concentrate their whole effort to elect one or two candidates upon their ticket, to accomplish this they are ready to trade for or buy votes.

Their mud slinging machinery is set to work disseminating falsehoods derogatory to the candidates they aim to defeat. Their efforts in the past have generally proved unsuccessful, owing to the fact that the great majority of the democrats are both honest and intelligent, and will not sacrifice their principles nor sell their nonor to the briber.

This year they are at their old tricks again, they have set afloat a whole cargo of lies against our candidate for county treasurer. They know full well that Mr. Jeremiah Snyder is perfectly capable of filling the office, and they also know that he is honest, and has successfully carried on an extensive business for a number of years, and what more do they know about their candidate for county treasurer; they do know that he has given no better proof of his capability. Now as a matter of fact neither capacity nor capability enter into their schemes or considerations in this matter, but their whole idea is if they can elect a Republican County Treasurer it would act as an entering wedge with which they intend to split the Democratic party.

When you therefore hear a voter make statements lauding the Republican candidate and speaking slightly of the Democratic candidate, just put him in the Republican column, a disgruntled Democrat or as a person who has received cash for doing so; and do not forget to mark such an one, for you will find him to be a professional kicker and he kicks for money every time.

A word to the straight democrats: We as a party have a patriotic duty to perform; it is the disenthrallment of the people from the tyranical rule and usurpation of an oligarchy composed of trusts and combines and their henchmen, the political bosses of which Quay, Stone & Company form the head, while the tail of it hangs dangling in every county of the commonwealth, and it is a part of this same company that is trying ing to build up an organization among us.

It therefore becomes the duty of every good democrat whenever one of these political leaches opens up with his stereotyped twaddle to simply set down upon him and point out to him that no good Democrat will disown the Democratic ticket, which his party has selected.

I therefore urge upon you the importance of this campaign, for with its result we will be better prepared for the great contest of 1900.

C. A. SMALL, County Chairman.
R. G. F. KASHINKI,
W. A. EVERETT, Secretaries.

THE BALLOTS.

The ballots for the coming election, on November 7th, are now being printed at the COLUMBIAN office. They are ten columns wide, the two extra columns containing the names of John N. Gordon and O. T. Wilson, independent candidates for County Commissioner.

In the Republican and Prohibition columns there is but one name in each for Commissioner and Auditor. A mark in the circle at the top will give the voter a vote for only one person for each of those offices. Every voter has the right to vote for two persons for each of those offices, and those who desire to do so, in the columns named, must not mark in the circle at the top, but must mark a cross opposite every name in the column, and then go to another column and mark a cross opposite another name for Commissioner and Auditor each, or write a name in the last column.

A cross in the circle at the top of the Democratic ticket is a vote for a complete straight ticket.

The paper used in the ballots is better than that used in most counties. Some complaint has heretofore been made that in marking the pencil goes through the paper. Lay your ballot down flat on the shelf when you mark, and there will be no trouble. A pencil will go through heavy card board if there is nothing under it.

The ballots are so wide that they could not be perforated sufficiently, so that they can be torn off by hand. Election boards should use a straight edge and cut them off with a knife.

THE ISSUE FOR 1899.

From the Carlisle American Volunteer of October 25, 1899.

There is only one question involved in the campaign now so near its close in Pennsylvania. That question relates entirely to the management of the State Treasury.

What Dewey has done at Manila; what Otis has done or is doing, whether "the fighting tenth" fought better than the other regiments; whether "expansion" would be wise or unwise; whether gold alone or gold and silver together should be our standard of value; whether trusts should be regulated or be entirely put down by law; whether a new banking system should be adopted or the present system be continued; whether the tariff should be raised or lowered or left as it is—all these are questions that belong to next year and do not enter into the present contest at all.

The burning question of the day and the hour is the management of our State Treasury. Capitol Hill has been a buzzard's roost for thirty years. The Treasury whose atmosphere ought to be as pure as the breezes that come to us over northern snows in winter, has for all this period reeked with the stench of a den of unclean beasts.

There is no use to undertake to clean out this den by ordinary means. Scrub women, with hot water, soap and hickory brooms are inadequate to the task. Farmers with forks and shovels could do but little better. But farmers and others with ballots in their hands can do the work effectually, and now is the time and the opportunity for them to do it.

There are no political principles at stake. It is moral principles that are involved. The question is between honesty and dishonesty, and this question concerns every man who pays a tax or has a conscience, for a man with a conscience ought to insist on honest administration of public affairs even if he paid no tax. The administration of the State Treasury for thirty years has been detrimental to public morals. If there be not a sweeping change now, the downward pace will be accelerated and the whole commonwealth will reek with corruption. Even now it seems that nothing but fire sent down from heaven would purify the Sodom at the eastern end of our State or the Gomorrah at its western end.

Nothing but fire from heaven will cure the rottenness, unless the people arise at once and stamp it out. There is no time to be lost. Evils that are not arrested always grow and spread, Our Treasury evils have grown and spread till they have touched every part of the commonwealth. Vice has become prevalent where virtue formerly prevailed, and rascality has become the rule where it formerly was the exception. Look at the defalcations of bank officers and others in custody of money, and at the rush after money in our election campaigns. Look at Quay, who, as the Republican Business Men's League of Philadelphia said in its recent address to the public "escaped the penitentiary by pleading the statute of limitations." What but knowledge of the corrupt state of morals produced by him and his associates could have nerved him to face the public again and ask them to give him a further lease of power to plunder the Treasury?

Does any man doubt that Quay has been plundering the State Treasury? Is any man willing to admit himself so stupid as not to know that when Quay wrote to cashier Hopkins that he would "Shake the Plum Tree," he meant that he would shake money out of the state Treasury into Hopkins' bank? And what did he propose to shake it there for? Why, just for what he had previously shaken it there for—to be loaned to himself and his son Dick! The father was teaching the son how to get rich by rascality!

This Treasury rascality must be stopped now if it ever is to be stopped; and the sure and certain way to stop it is to ELECT FARMER CREASY, the Democratic, Independent Republican, Honest Men's candidate for State Treasurer.

Just previous to Tuesday's rain it was claimed that the Susquehanna river, at several points, was lower than it had been in forty-five years. The annual crop review of the Bee, compiled from reports of special corespondents in every county in Nebraska shows that the corn crop of 1899 exceeds the record of the best previous year by 14,217,240 bushels. The crop of 1899 reaches the enormous figure of 244,125,093 bushels. The average yield per acre is 34.5 bushels, and the quality of the crop is excellent. The wheat yield is below that of the last two years.

A Scranton soldier, now in the Philippines, says one of our exchanges, writes home that he has been converted by the chaplain of his regiment, and wants his friends to send statements of all bills owed by him, as he is desirous of paying up. The home of ex-county treasurer John Kline, near Centralia, was entered by burglars at an early hour Monday morning, and robbed of cash and silverware amounting in the aggregate to several hundred dollars. It appears that Mr. Kline was alone in the house at the time. He was bound and gagged by the burglars, who ransacked the house, and made their escape. When the family arrived at the house later in the morning, they found Mr. Kline in the above stated condition, unable to move or speak. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

A goodly number of people assembled at the Normal Athletic Field Saturday afternoon to witness the foot ball game betwen Berwick and Bloomsburg. Both teams were pretty evenly matched, Berwick probably had a shade the best of the argument in the matter of weight. The game was well played from start to finish. At the conclusion of the struggle it was found that but two points had been scored our boys having succeeded in landing what is termed a safety. This game demonstrated to many who heretofore were loathe to believe it, that Bloomsburg has a lot of good material. All the boys need a little more development and they will be able to put up a pretty stiff argument.

The rain which fell this week has raised the hopes of lumbermen up the West Branch by raising the river sufficiently to bring in the many million feet of logs that are still back. It will mean many thousands of dollars for them and set a dozen idle mills in motion.

A western New York farmer predicts a long and hard winter. He bases his calculations upon the statement that the beech nut crop is phenomenally large, and adds that when this occurs it forecasts a season calculated to make life a burden to all who do not enjoy extreme cold.

The editors of a Scranton newspaper have caused the arrest of several parties who furnished a reporter with false information which caused the paper to be involved in a libel suit. It may seem fun to advise wrongfully a public journal in a matter of news, but the law bears heavily upon such jokers.

The question is often asked if the past weeks were "Indian Summer" No. The weather was simply magnificent and all that could be expected of Indian summer, but that delightful season of the year follows "squaw winter," after a freeze, snow squall and all leaves have dropped from the trees. Squaw winter comes the last of October and Indian summer about the second week of November, sometimes earlier, some years later, and lasting from a few days to a couple of weeks.—Ex.

"Does advertising pay?" asked one of our merchants the other day of the writer as he was on his way up the street to get the particulars of a happening. Why certainly it does. The public has a great deal to remember and its memory is short. It needs to be constantly reminded of your business. The man who knew and bought of you yesterday may be dead tomorrow and a youngster who never heard of you or your business is making his first purchase today. Don't depend on past prosperity.

Low prices for products do not compel farmers to sell at market rates, says a person qualified to speak on the subject. Each farmer has a reputation, or at least should make one for himself. A reputation for supplying the market with a choice article creates confidence in the consumers and they will pay more than the ruling market prices because they know they will not be imposed upon. If two farmers should send butter of the same quality to market, the one with a reputation would receive a higher price than the other, although his product might not be better. Each farmer should work on his own lines and endeavor to get his produce into market of better quality than the market affords.

William M. Hughes, of Hazleton who for many years has been a noted horseman, takes pride in speaking of the days when he was captain of a boat carrying merchandise from Baltimore to this city, returning with coal for the Southern markets, during the years from 1856 to 1863. In the year 1858 watermelons were scarce in this market and on one occasion he brought 1,500 of them to this city. The dealers here at that time were the late John Constine and Marx Long, who controlled the markets then for fruit and vegetables. The load was disposed of by Mr. Hughes as soon as he landed and the price was from 15 to 25 cents each, which was considered a high figure. Mr. Hughes weathered many storms on the canal and bays and has done much hard work in his time. He is to-day apparently in good health and unusually robust for a man nearing the seventies.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

BOOMERANG BARNETT

Those Who Know Him Best Like Him Least.

NOT WANTED NEAR HOME.

Republican County Chairmen in His Section of the State Ask That He Be Kept Away.

If James E. Barnett, called "Long Distance Jimmy," owing to the distance that he put between himself and danger, has nothing better than his military record to commend him as a candidate for state treasurer, he is in a sorry plight. His military exploits are of the kind in which "distance lends enchantment to the view." So bad is his standing with the boys of the Tenth regiment that he has been kept parading mostly over the eastern part of the state, for Chairman Reeder has been notified that Barnett's presence in counties where the members of his regiment live would intensify the strong feeling that they have against him.

Instead of the gallant and dashing colonel that he has been depicted by men who know nothing about him, dozens of his men accuse him of cowardice, and declare that he was more than once found seeking safety in the rear when he was needed at the front. Desperate efforts have been made to secure the endorsement of the soldiers of his regiment, but they have ended in failure, because a majority of the boys allege that he was a dodger in time of danger, that he treated Colonel Hawkins shamefully, and that he was insolent and overbearing in his dealing with the men under his command.

As he was nominated on account of being a military man, neither he nor his managers can reasonably object to having the public know just what sort of military record he has. Quay evidently knew enough of Barnett's weakness not to want him nominated, but he was overruled by his lieutenants, who now see that the "Old Man's" political judgment was better than that of those who forced him on the ticket.

The Philadelphia Record and The North American are showing up the machine candidate in so unfavorable a light that it was rumored a few days ago that he, like Adams, would be withdrawn from the ticket, and if the campaign were to last another month, instead of a week, it is altogether likely that Barnett would be withdrawn.

AFRAID OF HIS PRESENCE.

Republican State Chairman Reeder was told by nine of the ten county chairmen in conference with him last week that their campaign affairs were in bad shape. Some of those chairmen are authority for this disclosure, and they add that Reeder was warned by those from counties in which State Treasurer Candidate Barnett is best known, and from which the Tenth regiment had been recruited, not to let him do any campaigning there, as he would only make the ticket's prospects worse.

Barnett's stumping has been confined to the eastern part of the state. Southwestern county chairmen think he had better stay away from their people for the grave reasons which are on nearly everybody's tongue in Greensburg, Washington, Waynesburg, Monongahela City, Uniontown, Mt. Pleasant and other towns. "We don't want Barnett on the stump in our county," said Washington county's chairman, Underwood, to Reeder. "He would seriously damage the party's cause."

The Westmoreland county chairman told Reeder that the "Tenth regiment boys generally" in Greensburg and vicinity privately expressed bitter opposition to Barnett. Many of them accused him of an overfondness for rice dyke protection, far in the rear of his fellow members of the Tenth, during engagements with the Filipinos. They argued that if he had been like Colonel Hawkins, conspicuous for bravery and for leading the boys whenever they most needed leadership, they might complain less of "the great bunco game" that was now being played on the people by the Republican military spellbinders.

'KEEP BARNETT AWAY FROM US.'

The Westmoreland chairman mentioned to Reeder that the big judgeship fight in his county intensified the campaign feeling, and local Republican disaster might result from bringing Barnett there. County Chairman Crow, of Fayette, said to the head of the state organization: "Nearly every spot where you find a Tenth regiment boy you find trouble for Barnett. Many of them are not only talking among their neighbors against him, but are working against his election." Fayette, like Armstrong and Westmoreland, has a hot judgeship contest, and Chairman Crow, like his Westmoreland neighbor, thought the local scales might turn in favor of the Republicans if the Barnett red rag should not be shaken at the bull.

A canvass of the towns mentioned, as well as of other places, proves that the unpopularity of Barnett among the Tenth regiment soldiers cannot be successfully denied by the Quay managers. A host of reputable witnesses, professional and business men, would arise against them if necessary. It is supposed that about two-thirds of the regiment are Republicans, and it is asserted by many of these in the different counties referred to that a large majority of the Republican soldiers will vote against Barnett.

Philadelphia Record correspondents have interviewed a large number of these anti-Barnett Republican members of the Tenth, and have obtained permission to use some of the names in connection with their stories covering different sorts of accusations against their lieutenant colonel. It is alleged that most of the soldiers in the Barnett spellbinding hippodrome were never in a position to testify from personal knowledge what Barnett did, or failed to do, at the firing line. Certain spellbinders who could so testify, and were among Barnett's opponents, have changed under pressure. Future preferment under Quay machine rule figures in some stories, and other soldiers are mentioned to whom the offer of "$5 a day and expenses" for going on the stump was made in vain.

HOBART VERY ILL.

The Vice President Suffered a Relapse Yesterday.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 31.—At 1 o'clock this morning Dr. Newton, Vice President Hobart's physician, was called hurriedly to Mr. Hobart's house. Hobart Tuttle, the vice president's brother-in-law, also was sent for, and the members of the family assembled at Mr. Hobart's bedside. A messenger who went from the house on one of these errands said that Mr. Hobart was dying.

Mr. Hobart, who has been ill at his home here, suffered a relapse yesterday.

He had a succession of choking spells resulting from an imperfect action of the heart, an old affliction, complicated with inflammation of the stomach.

Mr. Hobart has not been able to attend to his private affairs for the past two or three days, and an intimate friend has been given a power of attorney to sign checks and attend to other matters of that character.

Albert A. Wilcox, Mr. Hobart's law partner, said he did not believe Mr. Hobart would die during the night, but he had but little hope of his ultimate recovery.

Two medical specialists were at Mr. Hobart's house yesterday.

A telegram was received from the White House asking for information as to the vice president's condition. It was referred to Dr. Newton and answered by him.

Mr. Hobart Better.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 1.—At 6 o'clock last evening it was announced that Vice President Hobart had passed a very comfortable day. He took an interest in affairs, was very cheerful and enjoyed a natural sleep. He himself said that it had been one of the best days he had passed in a week.

At midnight Vice President Hobart was sleeping restfully, with every prospect of a good night. He is weak, but holding his own. No relapse was anticipated.

The following statement of the origin and development of the illness of Vice President Hobart is authorized by his family and by the physicians who have attended him:

GUAM HEARD FROM.

Captain Leary Forced to Banish the Friars From the Island.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—A report from Captain Leary, the naval governor of the island of Guam, in the Ladrones, has excited a good deal of interest among the officials to whom it has been exhibited.

Captain Leary soon learned that his authority as governor was being subverted and every one of the measures of the reform which he proposed was being defeated by the hostile influence of the friars.

They resisted every decree, no matter of what character, from a spirit of intense conservatism and a belief that any disturbance of the order of things which had covered the island for so many years would cause them to lose their hold upon the natives.

After exhausting all other means to overcome this influence, Captain Leary reports that he was obliged to notify half a dozen of the friars that they might have free transportation away from Guam and he should expect them to avail themselves of the offer.

That left but one friar on the island, and he was a man whose character and reputation were such as to convince Captain Leary of his fitness to remain.

DEWEY TO WED.

His Engagement to Mrs. W. B. Hazen Announced.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Admiral Dewey announced to some of his more intimate friends last night the fact of his engagement to Mrs. W. B. Hazen of this city. Mrs. Hazen is the widow of General Hazen, formerly chief signal officer of the army, who died about ten years ago, and is a sister of John R. McLean, Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio. Mrs. Hazen has no children and since her husband's death has made her home with her mother. She is a woman of large means, about 40 years of age and popular in the vast social circles of Washington. The date for the wedding has not been fixed.

Admiral Dewey yesterday took possession of his new home. The last of the furniture was arranged in the new house, and the admiral's trunks were brought up from the apartments he has been occupying at the Everett.

Fortieth Regiment Starts.

FORT RILEY, Kan., Oct. 31.—The Fortieth regiment, United States volunteers, 38 officers and 1,065 enlisted men, Colonel Edwin Goodwin commanding, departed for San Francisco, bound for Manila, yesterday afternoon. Among the officers of the Fortieth are five who held commissions in Roosevelt's Rough Riders—namely, Captain Greene, First Lieutenant Sayres, First Lieutenant Fletcher, Second Lieutenant Cartmell and Second Lieutenant Bugbee.

Severe Coast Storm.

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—The first heavy northeast storm since last spring began business along the southern New England coast just before daylight yesterday morning, and by noon the wind had attained a velocity of over 30 miles an hour. At 4 o'clock the wind had increased to 40 miles an hour.

Fatal Hotel Fire.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—A fire which broke out at half past 5 o'clock yesterday morning in the Webster House, a small hotel on St. James street, caused the death of three persons, the probable fatal injury of a fourth, while half a dozen others sustained minor injuries.

BARNETT A COWARD

LACKS EVERY SOLDIERLY QUALITY.

Opinions of Several of the Tenth Boys Who Saw Him at the Rear, But Never in Front of Battle.

The Philadelphia Record correspondent visited Waynesburg and interviewed a number of the Tenth regiment boys, securing enough unfavorable reports of "Long Distance Jimmy," as Barnett is called, to fill many columns. Following are some extracts:

"Where the —— is Lieutenant Colonel Barnett?" exclaimed Colonel Hawkins, of the Tenth regiment, mopping his face, overheated by leading his men in the thickest of the battle at Guiguinto, in the Philippines.

"In the rear, as always, behind a rice dyke," answered some of his men, whose only rebuke from the commander was a grim smile. But presently he shouted to William T. Hayes, of Waynesburg, and others:

"—— him; go find him and tell him to come up!"

Members of Barnett's regiment testify to these and similar outbreaks of the commander's justifiable anger on occasions of the lieutenant colonel's alleged skulking when he was needed to help Hawkins in forming lines or advancing on the Filipinos. "I declare most positively," says a Tenth man, "Barnett did not come near the Guiguinto firing line until all was over, and many others in different companies know this as well as I do, and they say so, although generally, from various motives of policy, they do not go into print at present."

RICE DYKE JIMMY.

"No wonder," says Private Albert Crouse, of Waynesburg, "that even in Pittsburg, upon our return for the reception, the Tenth's boys exclaimed in the streets: 'Hello! Here comes Rice Dyke Jimmy. Look out for the long range gun!'"

Crouse adds: "I've been a lifelong Republican, but I wouldn't vote for that skulker, Barnett. He lacks every soldierly quality. No Republican soldier around here will vote for him if I can help it. I see that some men claim for him 200 of the 800 votes in the regiment. I do not believe that 50 will vote for him, and they will be constrained by what they are deluded into regarding as loyalty to the party, just as if the welfare of the party depended upon a coward's political fate."

ACCUSERS CORROBORATED.

Company K men, of Waynesburg, although part of Barnett's battalion, censure him as severely as Company I, of Greensburg, who tell of their seeing him lying well protected in the "Buffalo wallow," near Guiguinto railroad bridge, some hundreds of yards in the rear of where Hawkins and Major Bierer were forming the firing line at the fight's beginning. Company I men say all the rest of the regiment were ahead of them when they passed "the crouching lieutenant colonel."

Company K men's stories, particulary that of William T. Hayes, who was detailed to the hospital corps, fit into the narrative of Private John E. Clark, of Washington, who describes his helping to carry wounded and a dying man of the Tenth far to the rear, where he saw Barnett "lying low behind a mound while Hawkins and Bierer, the latter being commander of the other battalion, were in the hottest of the conflict, which ended a quarter of an hour later without the lieutenant colonel's appearance." The following statement is made by one of the soldiers, a prominent professional man, as to the opening of Guiguinto's battle, about 40 miles from Manila:

BOYS DENOUNCED FOR SKULKING.

"We were ambushed about 6 o'clock p. m., March 28 or 29. As we filed across the railroad bridge the Filipinos opened fire from the thicket some hundreds of yards ahead. Before reaching the bridge we saw Barnett standing and watching the opposite side, where the insurgents were supposed to be. I saw no more of Barnett after that during the fight, but I heard many of the boys denouncing his disappearance when Hawkins, who was at he front, with bullets whistling around him, needed help in forming the line. The boys didn't have much respect for Barnett after that day, which inspired the song about 'long range, rice dyke Jimmy,' although it was not the first engagement which they accused him of avoiding in the shelter of rice dykes far to the rear.

"The boys told me Barnett was lying behind a rice dyke in the rear, with two privates, whom Company I men or others heard him order to look up and see where "the niggers were," or what they were doing. In a previous engagement, at De La Loma Church, I think, when in a like comfortable position, the boys said that he made a similar request for a reconnaisance in his behalf, and one fellow exclaimed: 'Let the —— —— look up himself.' After the Filipinos retreated we camped there that night, but I did not see Barnett until the next day, although the boys were joking over his reappearance just after the fight."

BARNETT A TIN SOLDIER.

Private Albert T. Hayes corroborates the story of the inquiries of a person on a tugboat beside the transport Senator, in San Francisco bay, for "Colonel Jim," and of the shouted response from the Tenth's boys: "D you mean Long Range Jimmy, of rice dyke fame? Where would he be but in the rear?" Hayes adds: "Barnett had a reputation for 'cold footedness,' which means cowardice. But for Pop Hawkins I can't guess what would have become of the Tenth. I never knew Barnett to do a brave act. The men could have almost killed him for his tyrannical tin soldier treatment of them at Cavite, when Hawkins had gone sick to the hospital, and the lieutenant colonel persisted in tin soldier drilling of the few men that were not tired out or sick, after they had returned from campaigning and were waiting to embark for home."

HIDES BEHIND A MOUND.

One of the many battlefield incidents that had caused this feeling against Barnett is related by a Company H private, John E. Clark, of this town. "When we were crossing the railroad bridge at Guiguinto," he says, "the Filipinos opened fire on us from the woods, hundreds of yards ahead. Our fellows on the line of scouts up there dropped to earth. Major Bierer, of the Tenth, was the first officer I saw at the front, but very soon Colonel Hawkins was there forming the line.

THIS TIME IT WAS A MOUND.

"After carrying off a second wounded man of Company C I returned to the firing line and put on the litter George Taylor, of this town, who lived only three days afterward. We took him back to a sort of scooped out, swampy place among the rice dykes, which at that moment was 40 or 50 yards back of the firing line. To the left of me, only about 15 or 20 feet, I saw, well protected behind a mound, Lieutenant Colonel Barnett and one or two other men.

"Barnett had his little officer's gun, but was not using it. He was doing nothing but lying low. Hawkins and Bierer were at the front doing everything. The fight was at its hottest when Barnett lay behind that mound, which was five or six feet in diameter and perhaps four feet high."

GREAT BRITISH LOSS

Capture of Two Regiments at Ladysmith Confirmed.

THE BOERS AGAIN CLOSING IN.

London Awaits Further News From the Seat of War With Great Anxiety—Many Homes Already In Mourning.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—There was a continual stream of callers at the war office until a late hour yesterday, everybody anxiously inquiring regarding Monday's casualties, but the war office declared that nothing had been received since Sir George White's dispatch communicating the news of the capture of the Royal Irish fusileers and the Gloucestershire regiment.

This delay in getting further intelligence is attributed in part to the breakdown of the east coast cable, but it stands to reason that the war office must be possessed of further news, which it is probably not thought advisable should be published as yet.

The following is the text of General White's dispatch to the war office:

"I have to report a disaster to the column sent by me to take a position on a hill to guard the left flank of the troops. In these operations the Royal Irish fusileers, No. 10 mountain battery and the Gloucestershire regiment were surrounded in the hills and, after losing heavily, had to capitulate. The casualties have not yet been ascertained.

"A man of the fusileers, employed as a hospital orderly, came in under a flag of truce with a letter from the survivors of the column, who asked for assistance to bury the dead. I fear there is no doubt of the truth of the report.

"I formed a plan in the carrying out of which the disaster occurred, and I am alone responsible for the plan. There is no blame whatever to the troops, as the position was untenable."

The disaster has caused a feeling akin to consternation, and in Gloucestershire and the north of Ireland, where the captured regiments were recruited, the blackest gloom prevails, families awaiting with beating hearts the names of the slain and wounded, which are fully expected to reach a high figure. Many homes are already in mourning in consequence of losses sustained by these regiments in previous engagements.

Public anxiety was increased by a special dispatch from Ladysmith, published in the late editions of the London afternoon papers, to the effect that before darkness on Monday the Boers reoccupied the old position held by their heavy artillery, which General White had reported silenced by the guns of the naval brigade from the Powerful, and had opened fire again. The dispatch further says:

"The enemy are again closing in, and the situation is one of grave anxiety. Beyond doubt the Boer retirement Monday was a ruse to draw General White into the hilly country and away from the British camp."

This last sentence is significant and confirms the opinion of military experts here that General White is allowing himself to be outgeneraled by Commandant General Joubert.

From the scanty advices received up to 11 o'clock p. m., it seems tolerably certain that the disaster was a simple repetition of the battle of Majuba Hill, though on a larger scale. The two regiments were allowed to march into a trap set for them by the Boers. It is simply a case of the Boer spider and the guileless British fly. In fact, the whole engagement of Monday seems to have been brought on by Commandant General Joubert, who skillfully conceived a gigantic trap, out of which, as the official dispatch shows, Sir George White only escaped with difficulty.

General White advanced the idea of driving the Boers from Tintwainyoni hill, seven miles out, which General Joubert made an ostentatious show of fortifying on Sunday.

The Boer commander left a force sufficient to draw General White on, while the mass of the Boers he moved stealthily round the British right to deliver a flank attack and to endeavor to cut off General White from Ladysmith. The British commander succeeded in beating off the attack, but only with great difficulty, and during the turning movement his troops suffered from a flanking fire.

Harsh things are said in military circles of the British tactics which have made possible the ambush of the Eighteenth hussars at Glencoe and now the loss of two fine regiments. It is feared that Sir George White is no match for the Boers in that cunning by which Boer tactics are conceived, and it is pointed out that if the British commanders continue to lead their men into obvious traps further disasters must be looked for.

An interview is published with a British officer, whose name is withheld, but who is described as "a well known general, with a distinguished record during the Indian mutiny," in the course of which he passes severe criticism upon the conduct of the campaign. "Monday's disaster," says the officer in question, "is only another proof of serious blundering. Although Sir George White is a good regimental commander, he does not seem to excel in strategy or the management of a big division. I regard the Glencoe business as another example of blundering."

About 6,000 fresh troops will arrive at Cape Town Sunday next from England and be available to re-enforce Sir George White. Transports will reach there daily after Sunday until by the end of next week 28,000 troops will have landed in South Africa.

These men are intended for Sir Redvers Buller's army, but will undoubtedly be detached to Natal should the situation become perilous. The British army will eventually reach the huge total of 89,634 men and officers, of which 69,634 will be regulars, and the other 20,000 will be miscellaneous but excellent colonial troops.

Statistics have been prepared in the State of Wisconsin to show that the average cost of growing a bushel of wheat in that State is only twenty-four cents, while that of raising a bushel of corn is 27 cents. Both prices include interest on the value of land, with the cost of implements and horses. These figures seem a little surprising, and show what the farmers of the east have to contend with.

Get Out the Vote.

There is no doubt of the election of the Democratic county ticket, but it is desirable that every Democratic voter should go to the polls on election day and cast his ballot for the Democratic ticket.

The people are promised honest election in Philadelphia and Allegheny county this year, and if the promise is kept the Democrats will carry the state. The Democrats of Columbia county will want to share in the glory of a victory gained over Quay, and they can do so by rolling up a majority that will place their county in the foremost ranks of the Democratic counties of the State.

Let every Democrat make up his mind to vote for every man on the state and county ticket on Nov. 7, and the result will be all that can be desired.

An Honest Confession From a Republican Source.

The Democrats have this year, beyond all dispute, the honester position as to State issues, which should be really the only ones at stake.

Wholly aside from the results of the voting on the 7th of November, however, the Democrats are entitled to full credit for assuming the position of a vigorously aggressive minority party, opposed to the notorious maladministration of state government and the abuses of the Republican machine, a spectacular instance of which was exhibited no later than last week in the exposures which compelled the withdrawal of the first choice candidate for Judge of one of the highest State Courts. The Democrats have the best of the argument in exposing corruption at Harrisburg. They cannot be answered on that score. To what extent they will succeed in arousing public indignation to the voting point, only the ballots two weeks hence can tell.—Pittsburg Dispatch (Rep.).

Cheap Excursions to National Export Exposition at Philadelphia.

The National Export Exposition is undoubtedly one of the finest opportunities ever presented to the people of the United States to view the multitudinous variety of articles of use, comfort or luxury, manufactured or produced in this country.

When in addition to this we consider the magnificent concerts every afternoon and evening by celebrated bands, the great organ recitals, etc., and the different shows selected from the midways of all recent expositions, we do not see how any American can neglect to spend a few days at the Exposition.

To accommodate residents of this vicinity, arrangements have been made by the Philadelphia & Reading Railway to sell special excursion tickets from this vicinity to Philadelphia, on November 3d and 17th, at the low rate of single fare for the round trip (but no adult ticket sold at less rate than 75 cents), including admission coupon to the Exposition.

These tickets to be good going only on specified train morning of sale, and good returning on any regular train within three days, including day of sale.

In addition to above, ten-day excursions to Philadelphia will be run November 1st, 15th and 22d. Tickets will be sold, including admission coupon to the Exposition, at the rate of single fare for the round trip, plus the price of admission, but no adult tickets will be sold at a less cost than $1.00. Proportionate rates for children; between 5 and 12 years of age.

Tickets good going on any train date of sale, and good to return on any train within ten days, including date of sale.

For full information as to rates, time of trains, etc., consult ticket agents, or address Edson J. Weeks, Gen'l Passenger Agt., Philadelphia.

Fee Grabbers to be Brought to Justice.

In charging the Luzerne County Grand Jury on Monday, Judge Woodward criticised in very severe terms the Justice of Peace and Constables who rob the county treasury. He said the Courts are being overwhelmed with petty criminal cases which seem to be brought solely with the object of making costs for Constables and Magistrates.

He referred to the last term in which 800 transcripts of indictments were sent in and only one hundred true bills were found in which cases were made out or prosecutors justified and of these 100 indictments many prosecutors did not appear and additional costs were piled up to be paid by the county. The Judge said he heard of cases which were settled by the Justice and later returned to court by the same Justice in the hope of securing additional costs. He advised the Grand Jury to take action and bring the offenders to justice if possible. Magistrates and Constables, he declared, are stealing the public money under the guise of public prosecution, and that the county detective should be instructed to follow up and prosecute such cases.

The Judge closed saying that two-thirds of the criminal prosecutions are absurd and ridiculous and are only brought to make costs. He hoped that the Grand Jury would make a strong deliverance on the subject.

Our Population is 75,000,000.

Fifty Thousand Enumerators Must Gather the Census in a Month.

In June of next year the people of the United States will be counted for the twelfth time since the establishment of our government. "It will require about fifty thousand enumerators," writes Clifford Howard in the November Ladies' Home Journal, "to take the census, and their work must be finished in one month's time, or by the first week of July, 1900. That means that about seventy-five million people must be recorded in thirty days, or at the rate of two and a half million a day. The rate will be even greater than this, however, for in towns and cities of eight thousand inhabitants the enumeration must be done by them in person, except in such sections of the country as contain a great many foreigners, where the employment of interpreters will be allowed, as otherwise it would be next to impossible to secure the necessary data. The enumerators will be paid for their services in accordance with the amount of work they are called upon to do."
